

Dictionary of Rhodesian Slang

An Introductory Vocabulary in Zimblish - being the beginning of Zimblish and the end of English avo - delicious tropical fruit - avocado pears ag shame - expression of sympathy- agh sis tog ah suza wena- You dipshit, open the windows every-one !. aikona - not on your nelly - no ways china Aikona kourouma - don't talk bi 'scope - cinema Bichana - a little blerrrie - all purpose adjective Bobojan - monkey boss up - proceed with extreme caution bundu - countryside Bungie Pit- Place where one sets fire to Madisons at school.

brookies - knickers chiboolies - see TOOTS- castle or Lion lager chip (pron. CHAP in some european communities) choom - see PONGO circle - traffic roundabout catcha complex - exhibit unwarranted sensitivity deadright - see MUSHI - nice down south - RSA
big fashmal - see INDABA ek se - added to the end of every sentence during the 70's to drive parents mad flatdogs - crocs for Africa - see Maningi - a lot, too much funa - want gemsquash - delicious tropical vegie geza - wash
Goeie genade- Ooha bliksem.[Oh mye goodyesneeze mye] go to doo-doo's(sic) - moms late night endearment/plea to her kids graze - see PUZA gogo - see NUNU gummadoolahs- A place god only knows, no matter where you are Gunja - Strong Madisons guti - very light drizzle gwaai - tobacco
hambagashle - chameleon Hau !!! - How can this be to get the hellin - to catch a complex honestly I promise you! - see I SWEAR hey - this word has many inflections Is it! - even though it looks like a question it must have an exclamation mark when written
I swear! - see STRUZE FACT indaba - a serious matter maningi indaba - a VERY serious matter just now - some time in the next week (soon - never, soon soon - sometime, now - this year, manjimanji - maybe this week).
kanjani - see UZZIT
kia - house or room
lekker - see MUSHI
longs - trousers longdrop - see PK
mombi - milk factory
mushi - very nice
muti - any medicine nunu - insect/pest nyama - flesh of the mombie nyombies - a delicious pair of breasts only - see STEREK Ooha Bliksem- Goeie genade ou - male human Padkos - word used when stopping to buy crisps/cokes etc when going for a drive of over 10k's poofie - see SIS pongo - UK resident picanin - small child picaninni - something small
PK - Longdrop
Paw Paw - poofy pongo politician
"Praat jy Afrikaans ?" - A psychic Dutchman that can't speak English.
pull through - skinny runt putsy - really simple, easy puza - to eat

robot - traffic light to rock up - to arrive at the scene slops - stripped down takkies shupa - to annoy
Sis ! - express repulsion shesh - a concentrated bout of activity sadza - maize porridge shuttine - A place somewhere north of where you are, and probably a place you will never visit.
Skys - Bulawayo
Soutpeel - An Englishman spans - variation of sterek or maningi sterek - very or very much struze fact - emphatic phrase sundowner - an evening drink (alcohol) takkies - plimsoles tchiya - to deliver a knuckle sandwich Tchwala - booze
tenga - to buy
to throw a thrombie - see 1000 words troopie - national serviceman toots - drinks
uphill - see 1000 words uzzit - common form of salutation under rods - masculine form of brookies voetsak - get away!
1000 Words - a lengthy and impassioned harrang xmas Beetle - an ultrasonic Nunu zizz - a siesta Zonke - all Kangela - look at Chaeewa - authentic, the real thing Checha - quickly, on the double Bareka - hurry up
Shanya - crazy
For the Ingutchini (madhouse) - certifiably crazy Makiwa - people